NEW DISPLAY REVISION	EFFECTIVE DATE: MARCH 2026
LDC LAB REVISIONS E AND LATER LD250mTC5 LAB, LD2TC5 LAB, LD5TC10 LAB
UPDATED DISPLAY - BRIGHTER
Subject: LDC LAB Display Update The LDC LAB Instrument front display has received an update to include improved overall visibility, quality, and user experience while maintaining the same functions and operations. This change follows Wavelength Electronics' guidelines for continuous improvement of products without changing the customer workflow. This display change will not influence previous revisions of the LDC LAB (A-D) of any model. Updated displays from revisions E and later of the LDC LAB are brighter when compared to those of revisions A-D. Both displays function as designed, and the new display's quality and visibility have been enhanced for an improved overall user experience.
